Purpose of Analysis

Rockbuster is transitioning from being a physical store to an online rental service in order to compete with other streaming resources.

Key questions and objectives:

- Which countries are Rockbuster's customers based in?
- Which movies contributed the most revenue? Least?
- What was the average rental duration for all videos?
- Where are customers with a high lifetime value based?
- Do sales figures vary between geographic regions?

Rockbuster Worldwide Customers

From this world map we can see India, China, the United States, Mexico, and Japan are where most of our customers come from.

We will continue to look at genres to know better which are being viewed more frequently.

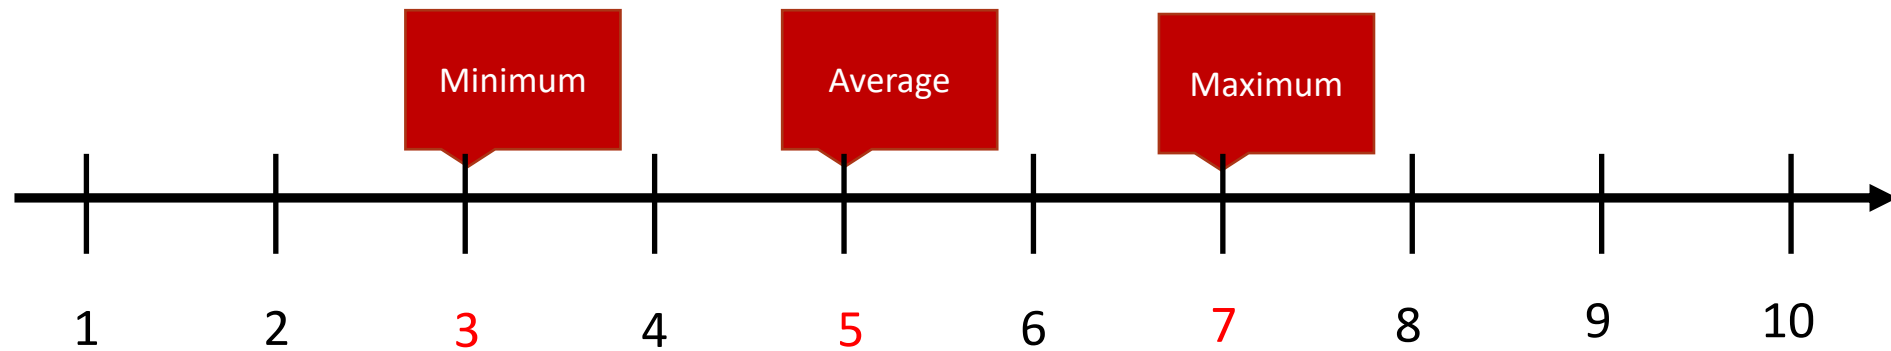

Movie Revenue Continued

Looking at each genre's total revenue we can see our top 5 genres are sports, animation, action, family, and sci-fi.

We can also see that thriller movies generated significantly less revenue than the rest of the genres.

Rental Duration

We can see from this number line our rental durations by number of days letting us know how long customers are renting out a movie for.
